OUR 1937 INTRODUCTION

Vin-Well Princess—FD—8x4—Bush 5-5½ ft.
A vigorous growing lavender pink with bluish sheen on face of petals. Stems straight and strong holding flower at proper angle. Blooming habit prolific. One of four formal decorations on Barron's Honor Roll in the December issue of the Flower Grower. Also performed well at the New York Botanical Garden, New York City, and at various points where on trial.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

Vin-Well Argonaut—FD—9x4—Bush 6 ft.
Much in color as M. J. Cross, hence the low price. Yellow center shading to peach. Possibly not so large as the above but more prolific and from reports from the middle-west, stands heat better. A good buy. Did well in New York Bot. Gardens.

Roots Only $5.00

NOVELTIES

Mrs. James Roosevelt—C.C. (Parrella).

Here is one of the best for 1937. An even grenadine red reverse streaked yellow. Very large and something different. Stems and bush growth ideal. Award of Honor, Dahlia Society of Georgia.

Roots $10.00 Net—Plant $5.00 Net.

Incandescent—ID—(Weyers-Parrella). A seedling of Jane Cowl. Rose buff suffused yellow and the same high center of the parent. One of the most outstanding at the N. Y. Botanical Gardens.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

Don Wilson—ID—(Jeffords-Parrella) Color a deep old rose, shading lighter at the tips with chrome yellow streaks running through the petals. Another good one from the originator of George Washington.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

Julia Irene—ID—(Parrella) A seedling of Kathleen Norris but deeper color. A rose pink penciled deep rose. Immense size on a stem second to none. Very prolific bloomer and grows 6 to 7 feet tall. Try this for an improvement over its parent. Award of Honor, Dahlia Society of Georgia.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

M. Col.—FD—A medium size dahlia in tri-color. Yellow center shading to orange with silvery white tips. An European variety that was outstanding in the east the past season.

Roots $2.00—Plants $1.00

Kentucky Sportsman—ID—(White). A real novelty, yellow evenly and distinctly tipped white, Winner of the A. H. A. Medal at Louisville, Ky., 1936. Well recommended.

Originator's plants only $7.50.

The Gateway—ID— (B & B Gardens) We grew this last year and were impressed by its beauty. Orange or Chinese yellow, suffused rose red. Petals outlined red. Two certificates in 1936. Flower large and bush tall.

Roots $15.00—Plants $7.50

Dixie Sweetheart—ID—(Kennedy) Seedling of Jane Cowl. Large. Primrose, deeper at center, most petals tipped deep lavender. Full center on fine stems.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

Dixie Angelic—ID— (Kennedy) Glistening pure white. Huge flower, fine centers and stems.

Roots $10.00—Plants $5.00

Dixie Brightness—CAC—(Kennedy). A bright light yellow with no shading. Full center and fine stem. Medium size flower. Very Good.

Roots $7.50—Plants $3.75.

Kentucky Gem—Min-White—Rosy Mauve center yellowish gold on long fine stems. Fine grower. Fern like foliage. Very good.

Roots $2.00 Net.
